

Art of Transformational Coaching & Leadership

LIVE ONLINE ADVANCED COACHING CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

WHAT DOES IT REALLY TAKE TO BE AN INSPIRING AND AUTHENTIC LEADER AND COACH?

Coaching is one of the fastest-growing professions, and the landscape of leadership is evolving rapidly. In today's dynamic world, being a subject matter expert alone is no longer enough.

To excel as a leader and coach, you must confidently embrace the unknown, anticipate emerging challenges, and innovate with foresight. The need for transformative leadership has never been greater, as leaders are required to be adept change agents who inspire and guide their teams through complexity and uncertainty.

As the demand for inspiring leaders spans across all industries, future-proofing your career hinges on solid foundations in coaching skills and the capability to tackle the most intricate issues. To stand out as an exceptional coach and a strategic 'thinking partner,' leaders must cultivate a robust foundation in transformational coaching—an advanced approach that transcends mere behavior change.

Transformational coaching is more than a tool; it is an integrative leadership style that enhances your existing capabilities. By incorporating advanced coaching techniques into your repertoire, you empower individuals to shift deep-seated beliefs and thought patterns effortlessly. This shift from traditional change-management (behavior-focused) to change-leadership (purpose-focused) accelerates team growth, boosts agility, and increases overall productivity.

In this experiential program, you will not only gain a fresh perspective but also uncover your untapped potential. You'll develop advanced skills to lead and engage others effectively, facilitating significant personal and professional transformations. This program is designed to equip you with the expertise to deliver outstanding results, both for yourself and for those you guide.

*What do you do, when you don't know what to do?
How do you respond, when everything you know hasn't worked? The ability to adjust your focus and modify thought processes is key.*

-Mei Ouw

THE APPROACH

DISCOVER

Explore the principles and practices of transformational coaching. Learn that NLP goes beyond processes to shift beliefs, enhance self-esteem, and build a fulfilling life.

EXPERIENCE

Apply these powerful techniques to real-life challenges. Master the intricacies of human thought and alter thought patterns for yourself and others.

REFLECT

Engage with peers to share experiences, challenge your thinking, and model successful behaviors.

REALISE

Feel the powerful inner changes and gain confidence in your capabilities. Use these skills to inspire and mobilize your team, leading them through purposeful actions and significant change.

Success depends on their ability to live with purpose, authentically engage and act with courage.

This program supports you to ask yourself the tough questions and master your leadership and coaching style.

Obtained my first CEO role and used every technique I learnt during the interview. Was offered the role in less than 24 hours.

TESTIMONIALS

I joined this program to obtain additional coaching credentials. I had no idea I would also be able to fundamentally transform how I was showing up in the world.

When I first met Mei, I was exhausted and living in a constant state of burnout. Through this program, I've been able to rewire my thinking, my habits and beliefs to fundamentally transform many areas of my life.

As well as my full time Executive role, I have started side business coaching Executives and developing bespoke Leadership programs.

If you are looking to build your coaching capability or start a coaching business, this is hands down the best coaching qualification I have undertaken.

You will learn tools and techniques and a way of being in your coaching that helps create transformation and long-lasting change in individuals.

Simone Weston HR Executive — LEK Consulting

This program is a journey of discovery about yourself as a leader and the power of communication. It is unlike any leadership course I've attended. The course focuses on arming you with the tools, knowledge and skills to overcome the challenges that prevent you and others from having the success you desire.

The first day I attended it was like a whole new world of communication opened up to me that I didn't even know existed.

Mei so casually was able to demonstrate the power of her content in a way that you can never see the world and communication in the same way again. The insights she offers on human behaviour and yourself are worth the price of admission alone.

This knowledge as well as extremely practical techniques means that I have walked away with some really tangible and meaningful strategies and tools to use with my team and for myself.

I highly recommend this program (to anyone that wants to grow as an individual, and a must for any leader who manages staff or is responsible for setting direction and strategy).

Grant Lester — Director of Operations

Through Mei's guidance and coaching, I have learned much about myself as a leader. Mei has challenged the way I see the world and my place in it. She's pushed me to dig deep in order to understand my core purpose – a transformative process which has given me the courage and determination to take my leadership journey to its next level.

Mei is an exceptional facilitator and coach. I highly recommend her for organisations and leaders of any scope, size or industry.

Hang Vo — CEO White Lion

This is a fantastic course and has helped me grow in a variety of areas that have made me a better and more effective leader in my organisation. Mei leads the course in a structured but adaptable fashion, allowing for time for participants to give everything a go, with a philosophy of people learn by doing. I would recommend this course to anyone looking to improve their leadership potential or work in a coaching environment.

Simon Dubois — Partner KPMG

Having seen Mei at work as a coach and facilitator I knew her to be an incredible talent in the world of transformational coaching.

Despite having attended many professional and personal development programs, including several coach training sessions, it was an easy decision to invest in the Art of Transformation program. I wasn't disappointed – every session of this beautifully constructed 6 month program contained powerful insights, methodologies and frameworks that could immediately be applied with clients.

Mei's deft facilitation of transformational approaches AND simultaneously teaching a large group virtually is masterful. The way in which Mei holds the work, the individuals, the inevitable resistance and pain of growth appears effortless and speaks to her decades of experience and practice.

If you are considering deepening your coaching capability this program facilitated by Mei is truly life enhancing and an amazing forum in which to hone and practice your skills. Sharing the learning and processes with clients has resulted in great feedback including how quickly we were able to surface the real issues, how resourced they felt to try new behaviours and how others were noticing their shifts.

Fiona Pearman — Founder of Pearman & Partners, CEO Quantum Impact Group

If you're curious or very clear about learning the power of NLP and transformational coaching, then look no further than Mei Ouw. She simplify an enormous subject into digestible segments brought to life with incredible teaching and embedded with live practice to ensure understanding. The container she creates is safe, non-judgemental, energised and highly supportive allowing you to integrate the subject in whichever way is right for you. You cannot fail to also deepen your knowledge of yourself which is powerful as well as achieving a qualification further magnifying your skills and impact as a coach whatever your specialization.
